

Waddell Remains Supreme

And we feel that twenty years of uninterrupted business career is worthy of brief reference. The business has grown from a very small beginning until now the public knows full well how large, reliable and successful it has become. It has been continually under the same management, and has ever kept abreast of not ahead of the times. And now we feel proud to say that it is spoken of not only in Houston but all over the State of Texas and Southern Louisiana as the grand and only reliable Furniture House in Houston. Years ago we foresaw the possible growth of Houston, and on that account we erected the spacious building which we now occupy. This was done not only to give display room to the largest possible variety but also to avoid the enormous expense of rents that would necessarily befall such a large establishment if located on the main thoroughfare of this ever-growing city. We have made Furniture and Carpets a special study and it stands to reason all these years of experience count for something. Therefore this week we invite you to attend the Twenty-first Annual Fall Sale, the greatest Houstonians ever saw.
